Jamboree Leadership Team Update

---

Mandy Merson has been appointed as Programme Director for the Jamboree, in addition to her current role as Deputy Business Services Director.

This change in the Jamboree Leadership Team (JLT) is focused on:

- the JLT supporting the team leading the largest Jamboree Branch with the second largest budget.
- getting cell leaders and other key staff for the Programme Branch in place as soon as possible.
- making sure strong Programme Branch connections are made with other Jamboree branches.
- successfully incorporating the new Scout programme into the Jamboree programme, with the involvement of the National Scout Leadership Team.

Mandy is going to continue as Deputy Business Services Director. This means that she will continue to have oversight of registrations and staffing, as well as a JLT contribution to other aspects of the Business Services Directorate.

These changes also mean that:

- John Morrison will become Deputy Programme Director. John has made an excellent contribution to leading the preparation of the Jamboree so far, bringing an "on the ground" and design perspective to our work.
- Wayne Reichel will continue as Youth Services Director, with a strong focus on ensuring the Scouts, Venturers and Rovers are a key focus for the Jamboree and are well supported to make the most of this experience. Wayne will also steward the development of a new operations centre - or "Hub" - that will ensure that we are responsive to Scouts and Leaders during the Jamboree.

An updated Jamboree organisation chart is attached.

These changes to stewardship of the key parts of the Jamboree organisation will make sure that we are paying attention to things that are critical to delivering a successful Jamboree.
